PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

On creating a multidisciplinary house of design

PHOTOGRAPH ANKUSH MARIA

I am an extremely passionate person and approach all my projects with the same exact passion. My work never reflects my personality, as it is not for me.

Kohelika Kohli, CEO & Creative Director, K2India

Her worst design is her own home, as Kohelika

Kohli feels that she can never get it quite right. Specialised in architecture and interior design, her first design was a 1,600sqft apartment in the heart of Delhi for a young industrialist. Her dream project is a performance space and a museum; she wishes she'd designed The National Museum in Delhi. According to her, the only way to live and work is to continuously evolve. Walking from failure to failure with no loss of enthusiasm lost is what she calls success.

“

Every project is challenging at some level. Designers don't necessarily have challenging projects but often have challenging clients.

NEVER DISREGARD
THE OBVIOUS
AND MOST SIMPLE
THINGS.
